SPEAKERS

Elizabeth Sloane

Elizabeth is the head of Stephenson Harwood's marine and international trade team in Hong Kong. She is a commercial disputes partner specialising in cross border litigation and international arbitration. Elizabeth has extensive experience in fraud and asset tracing, injunctive relief, corporate insolvency, and maritime law.

Elizabeth has advised clients in a wide range of complex disputes and has acted for liquidators, creditors and other stakeholders in insolvencies. She has particular interest and experience in locating and securing the proceeds of fraud, injunctive relief and equitable proprietary remedies.

In the maritime sector, Elizabeth has experience in ship arrest, the judicial sale and auction of ships, jurisdictional challenges, limitation of liability under the 1976 Convention, ship finance enforcement on behalf of lenders, and dry shipping arbitrations involving charterparties and the carriage of goods by sea.

Elizabeth has acted as an expert witness on Hong Kong law in both foreign litigation and international arbitration.

Elizabeth is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a Panel Member of the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration. She accepts appointments sitting as arbitrator.

Elizabeth is admitted to practice as a solicitor in Hong Kong, England and Wales, and Australia (Victoria and Federal jurisdictions). She has been based in Hong Kong since 2008.

Elizabeth won "Litigator of the Year – North Asia" at the ALB Women in Law Awards 2021. She is ranked as a Next Generation Partner in Legal 500 Asia Pacific, and a Leading Individual in Doyles Guide.

Andrew Rigden-Green

Andrew is a dispute resolution partner at Stephenson Harwood and he is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a member of the Singapore Chamber of Maritime Arbitration. He is an arbitration specialist with particular experience in dealing with shareholder disputes, joint venture disputes, asset financing disputes, international sale contracts, trade and commodity finance, marine disputes, shipbuilding and offshore oil & gas. Andrew is head of the international arbitration team in Hong Kong and co-head of Stephenson Harwood's Asia international arbitration team.

Andrew has extensive experience in multijurisdictional arbitrations, and in using courts to support such arbitration procedures (in particular to locate and to secure assets for eventual enforcement). He has conducted a number of ad hoc, institutional significant arbitrations both under institutional rules (HKIAC, CIETAC, SIAC, LCIA, ICC) and under trade association rules (ARIAS, LMAA, SCMA). He frequently team up with our international offices in Europe, Middle East and Asia to serve clients from a range of sectors, including shipping, aviation, construction, projects and energy, commodity and financial services. The arbitrations he has been dealing with as an international team have been seated in many different jurisdictions including China, California, Geneva, Germany, Hong Kong, India, London, New York, Paris, Singapore and Thailand. Many of these cases involve support from local courts in the form of anti-suit injunctions, asset preservation orders and freezing orders. Andrew has particular experience in jurisdiction disputes and in obtaining injunctions in support of litigation and arbitration.

Andrew also works closely with our CEPA association in Guangzhou which operates under the name Stephenson Harwood Weituo (China) Association, who appears before CIETAC, GAC, SHAC and the South China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission. We are ideally placed to handle applications in both jurisdictions.

Andrew's extensive experience includes representing clients from many diverse cultural and national backgrounds who may not be familiar with arbitration. He is assisted by the fact that he speaks fluent French and Russian and spent most of his life diving in cross-cultural environments.

Andrew has been with the firm since 2001 and has worked in both the London and Hong Kong offices.
